

Division 2, 4 & 6 will be up for election in 2026.

Who Can Vote?

To be eligible to vote, you must be at least 18 years old, be a Canadian citizen, and qualify as one of the following:

- ✗ A resident in the rural municipality for at least three consecutive months immediately preceding the day of the election.
- ✗ The registered owner (or purchaser under a bona fide agreement for sale) of land in the rural municipality.
- ✗ Assessed with respect to land in the rural municipality under a lease, license, permit, or contract in agreement with the registered owner.
- ✗ Assessed with respect to an improvement in the rural municipality.
- ✗ Hold a permit in the rural municipality with respect to a trailer or mobile home.
- ✗ A spouse of a person mentioned above.

Valid identification to use at polls

To vote you must provide valid identification with your photo, name and address. Bringing government-issued photo ID is your best option.

- ✗ A valid Saskatchewan Driver's License
- ✗ A valid Saskatchewan ID card issued by SGI or any motor license issuer
- ✗ Any other valid government-issued photo ID issued by a Canadian government whether federal, provincial or municipal, or an agency of that government, so long as it includes your name and address

Note: A Canadian passport is not an acceptable form of photo identification because it does not contain your address. However, it can be used as identification if paired with another document that has your name and address on it.

Non-Photo ID Options

If you don't have photo ID and are unable to obtain it before election day, you can present two other pieces of information, as long as both contain your name and at least one contains your address.

- ✗ Valid ID cards or certificates issued by the Canadian or Saskatchewan government, a Saskatchewan municipality or school division, a Saskatchewan Indian band, the Métis Nation of Saskatchewan or an agency of one of these entities
- ✗ Personal correspondence, benefit/contribution statements and tax/assessment notices issued by any of the above entities
- ✗ Bank/credit union cards, credit cards and statements
Utility bills and statements issued within six months of the date of the election
- ✗ Personalized attestation of residence, letter of stay or admission form issued by a seniors or student residence, long term care or shelter facility

A person without acceptable ID but who is accompanied by another voter who has acceptable ID and is entitled to vote at the same polling place can be vouched for by that individual.

The new RM of Edenwold map with updated divisions will take effect for the General Election taking place on November 9, 2026.

The RM of Edenwold completed a review of all electoral divisional boundaries in accordance with Section 49.1 of The Municipalities Act and the RM's Division Boundary Alteration Policy. Divisions must remain as equal in population as reasonably practicable to ensure fair and balanced representation.

The approved boundary alteration was submitted to the Saskatchewan Ministry of Government Relations and was signed by the Minister on August 27, 2026.
